I Swear I Saw This "I swear I saw this," is Michael Taussig's maxim, and it serves the eponymous book well. For Taussig, it means on the one hand that he's not sure whether what he has seen is really real, it seems so unlikely or improbable. On the other hand, he is questioning to whom he is talking when making such utterances. I Swear I Saw This: Drawings in Fieldwork Notebooks ... In a subject like Anthropology that operates free-handedly with no other tool than the human prism of mutual strangeness, what is testified in a notebook, and particularly through drawings and affirmative statements like "I swear I saw this", is the
